

Jane O'Callaghan

May 17, 2012

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Jane Parker O'Callaghan, 72, died Thursday, May 17, 2012, at her home in Belden, MS.

Born in Oxford, MS, Mrs. O'Callaghan had lived in Belden for the last 16 years. She was retired from Stuart C. Irby Electrical Supply Company where she worked as a secretary and billing clerk. Spending time with her grandchildren, flower gardening, cooking and cross-stitch were all things that she enjoyed. Mrs. O'Callaghan was a member of Tula United Methodist Church.

Visitation will be held Friday, May 18, 2012, 5:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held Saturday, May 19, 2012 at 2:00 p.m. in the Coleman Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. James Richardson and Bro. Clay Farr officiating. Interment will be in Tula Cemetery. Coleman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include three daughters, Janet Betts and Karen Huckaby, both of Belden, MS and Rhonda Kimery of Cleveland, TN; three step-daughters, Theresa, Tonja, and Tammy; 6 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great grandchild.

Her parents, John and Ura Parker, one brother, John Robert Parker, and one grandson, Adam Betts, all preceded Mrs. O'Callaghan in death.

Memorials may be made to the Tula Methodist Church or Tula Cemetery Fund, c/o Janis Parker, Caretaker, 64 CR 436, Oxford, MS 38655.
