“ I met Jared at Missouri Military Academy in the early 1960's. We were two homesick young men who tried to grow up away from home. He was down to earth and a loyal friend through the years. He loved his family and his work. I was very proud of him and his service to our country. I wish we could've gone fishing but time and distance kept us from ever fulfilling our plans. I'll really miss his smiles and laughter at reunions. He was one of the "good" guys. My thoughts and prayers are with his loved ones and friends.
