Mr. Gross' favorite color was blue. He would love to watch television. Some of his favorite shows were NCIS, Clint Eastwood and John Wayne Westerns, and anything that had to do with crime dramas. He also enjoyed watching baseball. One of Mr. Gross' favorite past times was riding in his truck (Old Brown). Mr. Gross rode in Old Brown every chance he got and would listen to Willie Nelson on the radio. He was also known to make some great iced tea. Mr. Gross was a very quiet, soft-spoken person. He had a big heart but never really showed it, until you needed something and he was always there to support you. He was very supportive of his kids and always there, never let them down. He was a good provider for his family, very hard worker, made the family what it is today. He was a shy, wonderful, simple human being who never complained, and never hesitated to work hard. He could always be described as very reliable, very loving, and very devoted to family - loving his mother with all his heart.

Mr. Gross leaves behind his loving wife, Hazel Jean Gross of Olive Branch; daughter, Stacy M. Thomason (James); son, Christopher Wayne (Nikki) Gross of Southaven; daughter, Margie (Tommy) James of Ripley, MS; daughter, Jackie "Lynn" (Peter) Burdick of Olive Branch, mother, Dorothy B. “ With each passing we learn that we have an AWESOME family. I am proud to have the Gross blood running thru my heart. I will continue to pray for God's grace to comfort all of us. We don't see each other often but when God takes one of us home we are all there to offer whatever is needed to get us thru.
