

Jeannie Lynette Shipp McCoy

January 25, 1956 - March 18, 2023

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Mrs. Jeannie Lynette Shipp McCoy, 67, passed away peacefully and unexpectedly in her home in the early hours of Saturday, March 18, 2023 due to complications with COVID-19 and Pneumonia. A visitation will take place Wednesday, March 22, 2023 from 2:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m., at Taylor United Methodist Church (11 Main St., Taylor, MS 38673). A funeral service will immediately follow at 4:30 p.m., also at Taylor United Methodist Church. Interment will be at Shipp Cemetery (Right past Anchor Cemetery on CR 373, Water Valley, MS 38965). Rev. Eddie Willis will officiate. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is in charge of arrangements.

Jeannie was born on January 25, 1956, in Water Valley, MS, to Stafford Monroe and Carol Janette Shipp of Taylor, MS. Jeannie had just recently retired from JPB Pathology after almost 40 years of work as a histotechnologist.

Jeannie lived in Taylor, MS her entire life and was a graduate of the Class of 1974 from Lafayette High School. She was a devout Christian and was a lifelong member of the Taylor United Methodist Church. She had the heart of a servant and was grateful for the purpose God allowed her to fulfill.

Jeannie was also remembered as a tireless worker, who never shorted herself and put her heart and soul in everything she did. She was selfless in her actions and kind in her words, and would devote herself to anyone or anything that needed her.

Above all, Jeannie was a loving wife to her husband of almost 49 years, Richard McCoy, mother to her one daughter, Jennifer, and grandmother to her two grandchildren, Kayden and Connor Bogue. She was very family oriented and loved the days that they all spent together. Although Jeannie has departed from this life, her demeanor and Christ-like lifestyle, will comfort the hearts of those grieving her absence.

Jeannie is survived by her husband, Richard McCoy of Oxford; her daughter, Jennifer (Scottie) Bogue of Etta, MS; two grandchildren, Kayden Bogue and Connor Bogue, both of Etta; her mother, Carol Janette Shipp of Oxford; her sisters, Lucinda Shipp (Steve) Coleman and Karen Shipp (Jason) Morris, both of Oxford; and a host of nieces, nephews, and extended family.

She was preceded in death by her granddaughter, Leah Grace Bogue; and her father, Stafford Monroe Shipp.

In lieu of traditional flowers, memorial contributions in Jeannie's memory may be made to the donor's choice of Taylor United Methodist Church (P.O. Box 45, Taylor, MS 38673) and the American Heart Association (www.heart.org/donate).

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is honored to be serving the McCoy family. Online condolences may be left on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com

“ I have known Jeannie since just after she started working for JPB pathology. She definitely had a heart of gold, did anything to help anyone and was a pleasure to work with. Jeannie was loved by many. May she rest in peace and may Richard and Jennifer, her sisters and her mother find comfort in knowing that she is in heaven looking over them.
