“ Jeff and I grew up together, we were fishing at Lakeview one day, when a storm was coming towards us so we were reeling in our crank bait lures as fast as we could so we could get back to the boat dock ahead of the storm. When my "Dive Bomber" lure cleared the water it shot back towards me and hooked in my right lower ear lobe. It looked like an earring hanging from my ear. I quickly tried to get it out, but could not. I told Jeff to get it out but he was laughing so hard he could not get it out, so I had to drive the boat all the way back to the boat ramp with that lure hanging from my ear. We could not stop laughing, but Jeff was laughing the most. We got to the bank, I ran to the truck, looked in the mirror and got it out pretty fast. I think Jeff could have got it out when we were on the lake, but he did not try very hard. We had many memories together. He loved his family and friends. I will miss Jeff.....Cliff Fry

Jeff & I were neighbors back on Harris Circle, so I knew Sandra, too! Jeff & I reconnected down the road after his Mom died! We used to cook out steaks & watch a Tiger/Grizzlies game & Jeff would flip the TV back & forth to catch the score on 15 other games being played! Lol I hadn't talked to him in awhile, but I was so sorry to hear of his death! We did stay in touch some on Facebook! RIP my friend, fellow Panther, & former neighbor! Prayers & sympathy to his family! 🙏
