“ May the Lord Bless , Keep and Comfort Jeff's dear ones in this time of tragic loss. As the Harris' neighbor, I spent enough time around Jeff to know how very deeply he loved his family and friends. -In fact, he showed up at my door with a bouquet of tulips on behalf of Sue and Mike on the one year wedding anniversary of my late husband!🌷 -My heart goes out to the circle of grieving family and friends. Jeff touched many lives in his time here. "This world is not our home." May the Peace of God, in His perfect timing, enter into our broken hearts.💕 Terry Craig (Maine)

“ Jeff, you were one of the best. Even if we didn't always agree, you were someone I knew I could count on. You were not just a friend to Mike. You were a part of our family. My heart breaks knowing that your light has gone out of the world. You will forever be loved and missed. Rest easy, my friend.

“ Jeff was one of my best and oldest friends. He was there for me every day and I for him. We joked, shared our lives, told stories and offered each other advice. Jeff will never be replaced or forgotten. He was family to me, like a little brother, and godfather to my son. He'll always be a part of me both mentally and spiritually. He deserved so much more than what the world gave him and it's just not fair he was taken so soon. Rest in peace my friend.
