February 18, 2015

Jeffery Lee Montgomery, 60, died Wednesday, February 18, 2015 at his home near Oxford, MS.

Born in Anderson, IN, Mr. Montgomery had lived in the Oxford area for many years. He was a retired mold designer and maintenance mechanic for Oxford CMP. Daddy was a wonderful Father/Grandfather/Friend that touched many peoples hearts that he came in contact with. He'll be truly missed by a lot of people. I have a lot of good memories growing up that I can share with my kids. Like when us kids use to come home from school he would be outside waiting on us kids to get off the bus. Then he would say y'all go get ready to go to the lake bottom to ride and swim and we had a blast. We done that every chance we got. Daddy was a hard worker to provide for all of us. If he was working he was spending time with us kids making sure we had good fun and not getting into trouble with other kids. But with all said Sam, Ann, Joseph "Lee", Alan, and I will always love and miss him until we meet again. Fly High Daddy be the angel you wanted to be and look over each and everyone of us until we meet again. Love Ruthie "Sister"

“ My sweet wonderful daddy was a great man a wonderful father, son and grandfather to his amazing grandson Harbor. My daddy lived a wonderful life and raised us kids himself. My mother did have things to do with us but my daddy was our soul keepers. Life will never be the same without him. I can still remember being a little girl in maybe first grade when it started he always done my hair for me! My daddy done without for me and Charlie to have the things we needed and wanted. He was the best daddy in whole world. And his daddy (my papaw) went the same day daddy went to be with the Lord @ 10:00 and papaw passed @ 5:00 that evening. I know my Mamaw and daddy were waiting on him to get there! It hurts but it's a blessing because they will no longer in pain and suffering. I love you to the moon and back a million times daddy R.I.P.

Jeff was the best friend I had for years. I loved him dearly. Hated to give him up but, at least, he isn't in anymore pain and where he wanted to go--home. Miss him terribly. Praying for the family.
