“ Senior year - senior trip was to Six Flags. Majority of the class took the bus to Six Flags, but there was a handful of us who went by personal car. I believe Jim Moore, Robby Havens, Mike Tucker and maybe another were the drivers. Rule breakers! We packed into three maybe four cars. Could have been more? It was so much fun. Of course, we weren't suppose to go this way, but we did! Are you wondering if we got caught? Well, of course we were caught. Six Flags on a weekday. Teachers present along with many classmates who saw us! Don't think we really cared. We broke the rules!!!! What was our punishment? One day of in-school detention for all of us except Jim. Jim was 18 by the time this trip happened, so he was in the clear. For the rest of us, well it was a day spent in one room laughing about it. A good memory!!!! He was a great person and a friend too many.
