

Jimmie Harris Greenlee

March 18, 2009

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Jimmie Greenlee, age 74, died at his home near Oxford, MS, Wednesday, March 18, 2009.

Mr. Greenlee had been an employee of Whirlpool Corporation nearly 50 years where he was a technical engineer. Consequently, he was well-loved by his Whirlpool family. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army having served with the 44th Chemical Company as a smoke generator operator. While in the Army, he was a sharpshooter and won two awards; they were first place marksman 34th AAA BN-16 and first place carbine (for this competition, he was one point from a perfect score of 200). He was a Mason.

A memorial service will be held Tuesday, March 24, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. in the Coleman Funeral Home Chapel. Coleman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include one daughter, Karen Goodhart of Brandon, MS and one son, David Greenlee of New Albany, MS; two sisters, Christine Shurden of MO and Essie Scott of Ocean Springs, MS; 6 grandchildren.

Preceding Mr. Greenlee in death were his parents, Romie and Mary Harris

Greenlee; one brother, Jessie Greenlee; one sister, Jeanette Usry; one grandchild, Nikki Whitehead.
