Mrs. Tubbs was born on December 10, 1947, in Memphis, TN. She grew up with a passion for playing the piano and serving her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. These passions led her towards becoming an excellent piano player and a faithful and true Christian. She spent most of her life serving as a church secretary. She would also play the piano every Sunday for church. Mrs. Jo also had a great love for working in her flower gardens, making sure to take extra good care of her roses.

She was very artistic and creative and enjoyed painting and working with arts and crafts. After her retirement, she enjoyed spending as much time as she could with her beloved grandchildren. Above all, Mrs. Jo was an amazing wife, mother, and grandmother. Her family was always put first, and they truly were her pride and joy. Mrs. Jo will be missed by all who knew her.

Mrs. Tubbs is survived by her loving husband, Fred Tubbs of Nesbit; her two daughters, Joy (Michael) Berryhill of Horn Lake, MS, and Grace Jones of Southaven; three granddaughters, Addison Jones of Southaven, and Anna Berryhill and Lydia Berryhill, both of Horn Lake; one grandson, Holden Jones of Southaven; one sister, Geraldine Holder of Covington, TN; and a host of nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Mrs. Tubbs was preceded in death by her parents, James Gerald Hicks and Grace Arlene Hicks; and one brother, James Lee Hicks.

Donations and memorials may be made to Gracewood Baptist Church (8551 Getwell Rd., Southaven, MS 38672).
