“ My memories of(Uncle) Joe were of he, my Uncle Wilson, my father ( Jerry Sr.) and their Dad ( my Grandfather) - hunting in the rural areas south Mississippi. We were always made to feel welcome in Uncle Joe's home. My heart grieves for you suffering this loss. If I could say anything it would be that this separation is not forever- we will see our loved ones again. You remain in my prayers, always.

When Uncle Joe and Aunt Mary Lou came home to Molino it was game on! We started with hanging the rebel flag at the entrance of Grandma's driveway. Always salute the flag Uncle Joe taught us at a young age. Then as soon as he climbed out of the frog car he would have a football, baseball or basketball in his hands throwing to us. He taught us so much about team sports. He was so much fun. Then we would go for a visit and it was to the lake we would go. Uncle Joe would always take us kids. He would say we were more fun. He was our hero. Our coach while he was home. Our best friend. We love you Uncle Joe more than you could imagine. Aunt Mary Lou girls and your families.... y'all had the best and our prayers are with you all. Love y'all so much

*Mary Lou,
Just found out about your loss yesterday. My heart goes out to you. I am sorry I never met Joe. He sounds like a great guy. The Hendrix family since childhood has been like my family. I just wanted you to know that my thoughts are with you and that I love you very much.

I am so sorry to read of Joe's death. I have found memories of going to their home as a child and remember when Joe was a student at Ole Miss. Aunt Reva and I shared a birthday so I remember her often. I remember going to your wedding, it was such a happy occasion. I miss being with my Robinson cousins but enjoyed a visit to grandma's house last year to celebrate cousin Judy's anniversary. Love and hugs to you, Mary Lou. Ann James Turner
