“ When I was in high school I remember Joe, Doug and Raney sharing a house On Vivian St. in Memphis. Joe, Doug and Raney all worked as carpenters. It was a trade that came so natural to Joe. I would go to visit and of course Joe would have Marilyn with him. . I can picture Doug, Raney and Marilyn waiting at the top of a staircase and Joe walking up to them with a big smile on his face.. The four of them are together again in Heaven.

“ I remember the good times we shared back when we were teenagers. Joe was 17, and he had a "heavy chevy" with wide tires on the rear and he would drive with his beloved Marilyn and me (being the third wheel) through Overton Park on the weekends. We would have Jimi Hendrix or Mott the Hoople cranked up on the stereo and man were we the coolest!!! Those were the days of long hair (on guys too) and halter tops. I absolutely loved it!!
