

John Woodson Todd

October 18, 2013

John Woodson Todd, 82, died Friday, October 18, 2013, at his home in Oxford, MS.

Born in Thaxton, MS, Mr. Todd had lived in the Oxford area most of his life. When he was young, he had worked in the oil field on the coast. On returning to Oxford, Mr. Todd worked at Avent's Dairy in maintenance for many years. He retired from Baptist Memorial Hospital as Assistant Maintenance Supervisor after 28 years. Mr. Todd was a deacon at Laodicea Primitive Baptist Church. He enjoyed hunting and rocking his grandson, who is now a lance corporal in the United States Marine Corps.

Visitation will be held Sunday, October 20, 2013, 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held Monday, October 21, 2013, at 11:00 a.m. in the Coleman Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. Steve Weaver officiating. Interment will be in the Laodicea Cemetery at Lafayette Springs, MS. Coleman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include his wife of 63 years, Madge Todd of Oxford, MS; one daughter, Sandra Todd of Oxford; one grandson, Lance Corporal John Brady Todd of Okinawa, Japan; one brother, Billy Dean Todd of Garden City, MI; one cousin and special friend, Evelyn Russell of Oxford, MS.

His parents, Henry and Zona Todd, preceded Mr. Todd in Death.

Memorials may be made to the Laodicea Primitive Baptist Church, Lafayette Springs Road, Oxford, MS 38655.
