Jonathan was described by his family as being a Godly man, who was a member of Taylor Baptist Church, and was a firm believer in his faith and embodied a Christ-like image for those around him. He was a family man that loved his children and was devoted to their lives by spending quality time with them. He was remembered for having the heart of a servant that would lend a helping hand to anyone in need. He was a hard worker that was determined to making a life well worth living. When not working, Jonathan loved to go camping and enjoyed fishing. Jonathan can be remembered for his friendly mannerism that everyone so close to him, loved. Jonathan will be missed by all those who loved and cherished him.

He is survived by his children, Stormie Nicole Patton and Gabriel "Gabe" Wayne Patton, of Oxford; his parents, Kenneth Patton and Cheryl Ann (Frank)

Walker-Cooper, of Taylor, MS; his sister, Latasha Anne Patton-Smith; his nieces, Kayla and Haley Smith; his nephews, Austin and Gavin Smith; and his great-niece, Olivia Sprouse.
