

Judy Colvin Ousley

June 27, 1945 - January 1, 2025

The family has made the decision to reschedule the memorial service and visitation in response to the heightened risk of inclement weather on Friday, January 10, 2025. The memorial services will now take place on Friday, January 17, 2025. Friends are invited to attend visitation from 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM at Coleman Funeral Home in Oxford. Following this, the memorial service to celebrate the life of Judy will commence at 3:00 PM in the chapel of Coleman Funeral Home.

Judith Ann (Judy) Colvin Ousley, 79, the love of my life and my best friend, passed away peacefully at home on January 1, 2025, in Oxford, Mississippi.

Judy was born to the late Betty Ann and R. C. Colvin on June 27, 1945, in Greenwood, Mississippi.

After graduating from Greenwood High School in 1963, Judy became everybody's favorite at Ole Miss. She graduated with a Business Education degree never to be used except for practice teaching in Canton. She later earned a degree in Interior Design from the New York School of Interior Design in 1982. She opened a little shop, The Inside Story, with her partner in Madison, Mississippi. Judy helped many couples decorate their homes over the following 30 years. However, her greatest joy was to raise two wonderful and loving children.

Judy's love, laughter, and her smiling face touched the lives of everyone she met. She never met a stranger and couldn't utter a crossword to anyone but me.

Judy is survived by her husband of 57 years, Richard N. (Dicky) Ousley of Oxford, Mississippi; her daughter Britton Ousley Owen (Bryan) of Jackson, Mississippi; her son Corbin Colvin Ousley (Brenda) of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida; her four grandchildren: Annie Owen Reid (Cooper) of Madison, Mississippi; Mary Ousley Owen of Nashville, Tennessee; Dalton Richard Ousley of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida; Grace Virginia Ousley of Santa Rosa Beach, Florida; her sister, Joan Colvin Nored of Greenwood, Mississippi; her sister in law, Judy Ousley Johnson of Memphis, Tennessee; and many beloved nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that you make a donation of kindness to those in need of a friend or a donation to the charity of your choice.

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford staff is honored to serve the family during this challenging season of life. Online condolences may be left on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com

“ I feel like I just lost a little Sister! When we lived two doors down from them on Virginia Street, Betty Ann always put me in charge of Judy n Joan to keep them from getting hurt! Betty Ann n my Mother were best friends. Betty Ann was my other Mother! My heart breaks for this special family. I send you my love n you are in my prayers!

“ Judy was one of the first people I met at Ole Miss in 1963, and every time I was around her I was charmed by her magnetic personality and cute smile, I was so happy to reconnect with her in 2012 when we moved to Oxford. She was always a joy to be around and truly never met a stranger. Though we shall miss you, Judy, I know that God has added an angel to his choir.
