“ I have many wonderful memories of Justin while we growing up. From the first day of kindergarten, to an elementary school dance, from him renting a limousine in the first grade for us and giving me a rose, to going to his family’s cabin when we were teenagers, and spending many days at his house and at his grandparents house. Justin always loved his khakis and polo or button down. The only time I saw him wearing a t shirt was we we went to the lake one weekend.... the only time in 13 years he wore a tee. Justin was always in a happy mood but if got mad, boy his face would turn red. He was always willing to help anyone that needed it. Justin will be missed by so many friends from Kingsbury. Everyone loved him!!
