

Kelly Wayne Hobby

July 17, 1962 - November 1, 2021

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Kelly Wayne Hobby, 59, passed away on Monday, November 1, 2021, in Batesville, MS. A memorial visitation will be held Wednesday, November 3, 2021, from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., with a memorial service to follow at 12:00 p.m., all at Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford. Bro. Fish Robinson will officiate. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is in charge of arrangements.

Kelly was born to the late Aubrey Lee Hobby and Glynn Hobby Tatum.

Kelly is described by his family as being very humorous, caring, and loving. He loved to make people laugh, often being the “clown” of the family. He loved his family and was very loyal to both them and his friends. He enjoyed fishing and hunting and going to the casino, often being lucky and winning big most every time he went.

His family shared a story of Kelly that displayed his humorous character. He was at the pool with his family and was jumping off of the diving board, however he really was “jumping.” He would bounce up and land on the diving board with his butt, enjoying himself every minute. One of the family members said he had to do it again so they could get it on camera. So again, Kelly did it again, but this time, the diving board broke! They all laughed and fondly remember it to this day. Kelly's humorous demeanor and his great smile will be dearly missed by his family and friends.

Kelly is survived by his daughter, Audra Thornton, of Oxford; his two granddaughters, Emma Claire Houston and Everly Rose Ledford, both of Oxford; one step-grandson, Michael Thurston, of Richmond, VA; and four siblings, Kem (Johnny) Gossett, of Oxford, Dana (James) Harwell, of Abbeville, Connie Hobby, of Oxford, and Marty Hobby, of Sardis, MS.

Kelly was preceded in death by his parents, Aubrey Lee Hobby and Glynn Hobby Tatum; and two siblings, Randy Hobby and Robin Hobby.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Springdale Freewill Baptist Church Cemetery Fund.
