Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Kendall Hughes, 51, of Oxford, passed away Thursday, February 29, 2024, at Diversicare in Tupelo, Mississippi.

The family will receive friends at Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford on Sunday, March 3, 2024, from 12:00 PM until 2:00 PM. The funeral service celebrating his life will occur on Sunday, March 3, 2024, at 2:00 PM in the chapel of Coleman Funeral Home.

Kendall was welcomed into this world on December 14, 1972, in Oxford, Mississippi, as one of the two children born to Martha Alexander and the late Samuel Hughes.

He was a skilled tradesman who obtained his welding certificate and spent time mending and creating metal structures until his health declined. Kendall enjoyed spending time outdoors in his spare time, from tending to an expansive vegetable garden to hunting deer and catfishing when the weather was just right. In addition to his hobbies, he found solitude in driving his beloved Ford F-150 or his four-wheeler while listening to classic rock and roll. He even had the skills to repair cars, sometimes as a shade tree mechanic. However, above all of his hobbies and interests, Kendall valued his family and paid particular attention to his daughters and three grandchildren. Although Kendall has departed from our presence, his treasured memory will hold a special place in the hearts and minds of his loved ones.

He leaves behind a loving family to continue walking down the path of life: his mother, Martha Alexander of Oxford; two daughters, Kayla (Wesley) Ivey and Katelyn (Trenton) Pace, both of Oxford; two granddaughters, Kensley Fortner and Embry Ivey both of Oxford; a grandson, Mason Pace of Oxford; one aunt, Jackie Grose of Oxford; and the mother of his children, Angela McLarty of Oxford.

The loved ones who departed from this life before him include his father, Samuel Hughes, and one brother, Samuel Hughes.

In place of traditional flowers, memorial contributions can be given in his name to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital <https://tinyurl.com/yk8sjv4r>.
