Larry was born and raised in Oxford, MS. He dedicated 33 years of his life to being a proud firefighter in Oxford. He was stationed at the original Station 1 of Oxford and retired as a Battalion Chief. He was a proud and dedicated man and always put the lives of other first.

Larry had a personality like no other. He was such a fun-loving man and those who knew him often referred to him as an extreme jokester. Larry loved nothing more than spending time with his family and friends and having a good laugh. He was also known to be an amazing and vivid storyteller.

Larry was also an avid outdoorsman. His entire life was based around the outdoors. He absolutely loved his home in Sardis and spending time on the lake. He spent every second he could fishing up to his last day with us. He also had a love for hunting, as he was involved with various hunting clubs and organizations throughout his life. Larry loved his Lord and Savior and attended North Oxford Baptist Church.

Larry is survived by his daughter, Taylor (Whit) Freeman of New Albany, MS; his fiancé, Angie Bullock of Oxford; one granddaughter, Charlotte Freeman of New Albany; two grandsons, Drew Freeman and Max Freeman of New Albany; his sister, Stacy Lindsey of Oxford; his nephew, Alex Lindsey of Oxford; and a host of nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Larry was preceded in death by his parents, Ross Lindsey and Mary Sue Lindsey; his sister, Suzanne Young; and his brother, Terry Wayne Lindsey.

Donations and memorials may be made to the Lafayette County Volunteer Fire Department (P.O. Box 1435, Oxford, MS 38655).

“ Rest easy my friend. Your absence leaves a BIG hole in a lot of hearts. I guess now is when I forgive you for giving away that beautiful rose bush that was in front of your house on Price Street.
