CL

Larry was a family man. His main purpose was taking care of all his family. My best memories are all those weekends that his family and my family spent together. There were so many hilarious moments and just genuine friendships over the years....made life worth living. And we were all in church together at Park Village Christian Church. Special times, one of a kind relationships which included Peggy and Jim Jones.

We wish you a Safe Journey and a Holy Rest, Larry. You and Janet Sue are together again. Soon we will all be "there", the ultimate place for reunions. Say hello and we miss you to our JB ⚡️🌟

“ Lots of love and prayers being sent to our Tennessee family. Uncle Larry was a jokester and I remember him always teasing. May he Rest In Peace with auntie Jan.
