“ Lenore started off as a coworker at Walmart in Cody, Wyoming. We got along well right from the start. Over time (and thanks to my enjoyment of NFL football) we became friends. Long story short she ended up being one of my best friends. And she also was kind enough to be a kind of second/surrogate Mother figure to me as both my own parents passed some years ago. I will never be able to fully and properly convey how much Lenore meant to me. She always made time for me and what was going on in my life regardless of all the was going on in hers. That I think speaks incredibly well to her character. I will miss you forever and I will always remember you. My condolences to all the rest of her family and friends. Lenore, I love you.
