

Linda Brown Derrick

December 17, 2005

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Linda Brown Derrick, 58, passed away Saturday, December 17, 2005, at Graceland Care Center in Oxford, MS.

Mrs. Derrick was born in Prescott, Arkansas and was a graduate of Camden High School and the University of Central Arkansas in Conway, Arkansas. She was a childhood member of El Dorado Church of the Nazarene and worked as a teacher in Missouri until her retirement.

She is survived by her mother, Eva Mae (Nannie) Brown of El Dorado, Arkansas; her son, Lester Neal Derrick of Mauldin, South Carolina; her daughter, Augusta Grace Derrick, currently deployed with the 864th Engineers Battalion of the U.S. Army in Afghanistan; two sisters, Nancy Miller and Debbie Sutherlin, both of Oxford, MS; one granddaughter.

A memorial service was held in Mt. Vernon, Missouri. Coleman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.