Linda was born in Greenwood, MS, on March 17, 1950. She is preceded in death by her loving husband Farmer Porter (Bubba) Hughes; and parents Earline Harrison Gillis and James Spencer.

Linda invested her love in others she considered family. She raised at least two strong independent women who are excellent examples of her legacy. She will be remembered for her strong opinions, her sense of humor that would catch you off guard and her heart. Linda was a fabulous cook and was known to have made the best sugar cookies. She loved her munchkin cats and spoiled them any way she could.

Linda and Bubba traveled in their later years, from the east coast all the way to the west coast. They also enjoyed Women's Basketball and traveled to attend Lady Vol basketball games for years.

Linda is survived by her daughter, Emily Shannon Hughes of Horn Lake, MS; two sisters, Betty (Jim) Denny of Olive Branch, MS, and Renee (Steve) Coleman of Maben, MS; niece, Shelby Coleman (Dustin) Hardin; and a cousin, Jan Harrison Rhodes.

Linda's kindness and sweet spirit left a mark on the lives of everyone who was blessed to know her. She will be missed by all those that loved and cherished her.
