“ I am so sorry you had to go so soon, but when He calls from up there it's our time. I just want to say thank you for always being my friend and a true friend from the heart, I worked for a little while with your business and loved every minute of it. You raised the best crazy kids I love so dearly and your wife oh my gosh she is the best person God could bless you with. I could see her love for you in her eyes. I loved that you Mr Lucio you were always in a happy mood no matter what was going on in your life.
