Mamie was welcomed into this world on May 29, 1956, in Oxford as a daughter of the late Henry Jarrett and Gracie Walton Jarrett.

This sweet spirited woman spent many seasons of her life keeping homes and businesses in the Oxford area neat and in order as a professional housekeeper. Aside from looking after the homes of others, Mamie had a keenness for growing, growing many different varieties of ornamental flowers and flavorful vegetables. When she was not meticulously looking over her beloved plants, this strong-willed woman could be found adoring her beloved dogs or on the search for treasures at any yard sale, she could find. Mamie was baptized in 1983 as a Jehovah's Witness. She was a faithful member of the Oxford congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses on Highway 30. She found true joy in volunteering her time talking to others about what God's Kingdom will do for mankind. Although Mamie has departed from our lives, her treasured memory will hold a special place in the hearts of her loved ones and freinds.

She leaves behind a loving family to continue walking down the path of life in her absence; one brother, Grady Jarrett of Tupelo, Mississippi; three sisters: Sally Coleman of Oxford, Mississippi; Jettie Campbell of Oxford, Mississippi; Ola Jean Jones of Okolona, Mississippi; host of special family members. The loved ones that departed from this life before her include; her parents, Henry Jarrett and Gracie Walton Jarrett; five sisters: Maggie Mae Jackson, Mary Sue Alexander, Patricia Mayes, Nellie Herrod, and Millie Jones.

The staff at Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is honored to serve the family of Mamie Dennis as they begin to walk through this new season of life.

The family has elected not to hold a repast as they mourn the loss of their beloved Mamie.

“ Mamie holds a special place in the hearts and minds of all of us whose lives she touched. Mamie was someone that my mother loved and the only person she trusted with what was one of the most dear treasures -- her home. When Mamie came Mother made us all clear out, saying that we had to respect Mamie's space and let her work in peace. Mother always said that no one could do what mamie could do. But Mamie was more than someone who cleaned for mother. They shared a lot in common -- both strong-willed independent women both lovers of good food both holding themselves and others to high standards. And they both held family to be dear. although not a dog lover herself Mother saved food for Mamie's dogs every week and would scold us if we didn't remember. Mamie also didnt hold back scolding mother when she deserved it. Mamie's visits every two week were a highlight in our lives. Her spirit and sense of humor brought light and joy into our lives and we will miss her.

“ Mamie was a beautiful person through and through. She took care of my Mother, Betty Wiseman, lovingly for years and years, and when Mother had cancer surgery several years ago, Mamie came to the hospital and waited with us until it was over. Our condolences to Mamie's family, as we know how great is your loss.
