

Marjorie Gooch Gilmore

January 3, 2013

Marjorie Gooch Gilmore, 91, died Thursday, January 3, 2013, at Hermitage Gardens in Oxford, MS.

Growing up in Taylor, MS, as one of eleven children, Mrs. Gilmore had lived and worked in the Oxford area all of her life. She rode the train daily from Taylor when train fare was 10 cents roundtrip to attend nursing school at the Oxford Hospital. Mrs. Gilmore worked in the medical profession many years and retired from the Oxford-Lafayette County Hospital where she worked as an EMT. After retirement, she travelled with her sisters and her friend, Ilene White, to various places in the United States, often driving. Mrs. Gilmore enjoyed attending and participating in southern gospel singing. She was a member of Pine Bluff Church of Christ.

Visitation will be held Saturday, January 5, 2013, 12:00 noon-1:00 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home with funeral services following at 1:00 p.m. in the Coleman Funeral Home Chapel. Bro. Bill Russell will officiate. Interment will be in the Garden of Memories located at Coleman Funeral Home. Coleman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include two daughters, Ellen Coleman Weaver and Edwina (William) Coleman Shankle, both of Oxford, MS; one grandson, Davery Bland, of Johnson City, TN; one brother, William "Bill" Gooch of Madison, MS; numerous nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Gilmore was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Catherine Gooch, her husbands, Edwin Coleman and E.Y. "Jimmy" Gilmore, five sisters and four brothers.

Memorials may be made to Providence Companion Care, LLC, P.O. Box 2047, Clarksdale