Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch

Mrs. Martha Bowman Bost, 77, passed away Thursday, January 25, 2018, at Methodist Hospital in Germantown, TN. A visitation will be held at Coleman Funeral Home from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 27, 2018. Coleman Funeral Home of Olive Branch is in charge of arrangements.

Martha's love for flying began at a young age when she became a flight attendant for Southern Airlines and Northwest Airlines. During her career, she traveled the world and met so many people while flying the friendly skies. At the end of her flying career, Martha became an in-flight supervisor and had the responsibility of overseeing flight attendants develop their careers. Once Martha retired, she spent her free time doing crossword puzzles, enjoyed the beauty of hummingbirds, occasional trips to the casinos and watching her favorite soaps on television. When December came, she would decorate her home for the holidays and everyone would come by to visit her and her loving fur baby, Midnight. Many residents of Olive Branch will remember her as Hazel's Restaurant's #1 customer.

Martha leaves behind two nieces, Virginia (Bud) Clark Causey of Jonesborough, TN, and Debbie (Johnny) Blakley Miller of Sumter, SC and a nephew, Keith (Lisa) Blakley Miller of Saint Louis, MO. She also leaves behind several great nieces and nephews, along with many friends that she loved dearly.

She is preceded in death by her parents Argil and Elsie Bowman, and three sisters, Frances Clark, Evangeline Eyer and Peggy Walker.

Donations and memorials may be made to Marvin's Chapel Methodist Church (1882 Old Boones Creek Road, Johnson City, TN 37615).

Online condolences may be left on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.
