

Marvin Dickey

December 23, 2016

Marvin Dickey, 90, died on Friday, December 23, 2016, at Yalobusha General Hospital in Water Valley, Mississippi.

Mr. Dickey was a member of the VFW and the Campground Baptist Church. He had a great love for traveling the countryside and playing bingo. Above all else, he loved his family more than anything.

The family would like to express that there will be no services due to Mr. Dickey's final wishes. Therefore, they would like to thank all of their friends and family for the love and support they have shown during this time.

He is survived by two brothers, Robert Dickey of Water Valley, MS and Richard D. Dickey of Plano, TX; two sisters, Mary Alice Hayles of Water Valley and Hilda McCord of Memphis, TN; and a host of nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Marvin W. Dickey, Sr. and Leither Rampy Dickey; and three brothers, James Dickey, Donald Dickey, and Billy Mack Dickey.

Memorials and contributions are to be made out to the Wounded Warrior Foundation.

Online condolences may be left on the tribute wall on this website.
