Mary Ann was born in Batesville, MS, to Newell Tommie Darby and Mary Scott Darby. She spent her life in Batesville until 13 years ago when she moved to Abbeville, MS. She attended Northwest Community College, and she was a member of Calvary Baptist Church of Oxford, MS. She loved her church family and enjoyed attending until her health declined.

She was a homemaker who dearly loved her family and her animals, especially her cat, Rosie. She loved being at home, cooking, working in the yard, reading, and playing the piano. She kept an immaculate house and loved all desserts. Mary Ann enjoyed attending her high school reunions and reconnecting with friends. She especially enjoyed dancing. In her younger days, she was an avid walker.

She will always be Memaw to her six grandchildren and five great grandchildren. She got special joy from attending their ballgames, school events, and graduations.

Mary Ann is survived by her four children, Beth (John) Lovelace of Jonesboro, AR; Teri (Ricky) Gray of Batesville, MS; Jackie (Alan) Ingalls of Abbeville, MS; and Jason Wilson of Batesville, MS.
