“ It has taken me days to be able to write this. I'm gonna miss you girl, you've been like my sister since I was 13 years old. I know you are at peace and with all our loved ones now, I wish I could've been there for that reunion. I will always remember the good times we shared when we got together. Just writing this brings back memories with the tears. Rest in Peace my friend, you may be gone but not forgotten. Love you, Sharon

“ This hurts my heart deeply. Judy was a good mother, wife, Sister, grandmother, and daughter or whoever came into her life. She was so selfless. That woman loved her kids with everything in her. I remember being a teenager and she always kept an eye on us even if it was to go tell my mother something I did lol she always kept us safe and one thing that sticks out that I can remember is she would never let her kids go hungry they could be at a friends house and here comes Judy with some McDonald's to feed her kids And I still remember Crystal and her water she had to have water if I'm not mistaken. Her and Richard always had an open door for most. Judy love to spend her free time at the casinos even if it was playing nickels and penny machines, that woman would always win something and when she did she always gave them kids some spending money but anyways that's the kind of person she was. I'll always keep you in my heart. Now go be with your Husband. I love you forever and always!
