“ Frances was a dear friend. We used to sing together in the praise band at St Paul UMC beginning in 1993 and ending when she was unable to manage the steps to get on the stage. She had such a passion for music and I threatened on more than one occasion to set up a mic on the floor so she could bless us with that beautiful voice again. She loved Patsy Cline songs and they fit her voice perfectly. I will miss my friend, but know she is singing in the heavenly choir and dancing on the golden streets. Go rest high on that mountain, my sweet friend.

Love you,

“ Heaven has gained an angel... I'll never forget the bond we shared my lil “Jazzy Grandma” and how you always made sure your eyebrows were on and your earrings matched your clothes. Such heart you had, even when I used to have to burst into your room and make you forget what you were ever crying for in the first place... not a sad occasion... dance in Heaven girl💕 Eternal Love from your favorite nurse -Tiara

“ I always enjoyed singing in the choir and in small groups with Frances. She and I sang alto together and it was always a joy to have her by my side. She endured a lot after she retired but her faith was strong. She had the most beautiful smile! She will be missed!
