“I met mary laine at my daughter and son-in-law's home while visiting them in oxford; my grandsons beckett and teagan fowler played with her most every day at some point; mary laine was their first friend after they moved from ohio to mississippi; she was so darling and hilarious--changing outfits every 15 minutes and going back and forth between her home and my daughter Anna and son-in-law Denver Fowler's home; when i first met her she told me she liked my dress and shoes which was so sweet; i could tell she was an extra-special child and so personable; she was filled with the love of Jesus and her light will never go out because His light shone through her. May the Holy Spirit of our Most High God comfort you Staci and Wade (and family) with the peace that passes all understanding as only He can give. With a heart of deep grief for your loss, a heart of rejoicing for whose everlasting arms Mary Laine is resting and the knowledge that you will see her again and a heart filled with hope for healing your broken hearts as only He can. With much love, Suzy Freytag (Anna's mother)
