

Montell Rice Meacham

May 6, 2012

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Montell Rice Meacham, 94, died Wednesday, May 16, 2012 at his home near Oxford, MS.

Born in Ripley, TN, Mr. Meacham had lived in the Oxford area for four years. Mr. Meacham was a retired entrepreneur who had several business interests. He raised miniature horses and was a member of the American Miniature Horse Association. Mr. Meacham enjoyed riding the tractor and his farm. An avid baseball fan, Mr. Meacham followed the Braves. He had friends all around the United States.

A private memorial service will be held at a later date. Coleman Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Survivors include his wife, Michelle R. Meacham of Taylor, MS; three sons, Monty C. Meacham and Paul Meacham, both of Reno, NV, and Mark Meacham of Williams, CA; one daughter, Naomi Stacy of Corning, CA; 4 grandchildren, 2 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great grandchild; numerous nieces and nephews.

Mr. Meacham's parents, Elridge and Sally N. Meacham, a son, Billy Ray

Meacham, and his brothers and sisters all preceded Mr. Meacham in death.

Memorials may be made to Baptist Hospice, 548 Hwy. 6 East, Batesville, MS 38606.

Online condolences may be left at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.