Nancy was born to Richard and Jerolyn Grimes in Tula, MS on April 7, 1942.

Nancy was well-loved by the Lafayette County community where she spent her whole life. For those who were close to her knew her as strong, loving, and hard-working. She loved her family and grandchildren more than anything. For all who knew Nancy were able to experience the love of Jesus through her. It was her life mission to serve others, and with that she did very well.

Nancy never missed the opportunity to cheer on her Ole Miss Rebels. She rarely missed a football game at Vaught-Hemingway or a baseball game at Swayze with her friends and family. She also enjoyed watching Major League Baseball – her favorite team, the St. Louis Cardinals.

Nancy is survived by her husband, Gerald Clemons of Oxford, MS; two daughters, Tammy Livingston (Robert) of Murrieta, CA, and Christy Marshalek (John) of Clinton, MS; two sons, Andy Clemons (Jackie) of Tula, MS, and Jeff Clemons (Kortni) of Oxford, MS; one sister, Bonita Gossett (Dean) of Tula, MS; seven grandchildren, Kimberly Livingston, Heather Livingston, AJ Copeland, Jack Clemons, Carter Clemons, Bryce Clemons, and Michael Marshalek; and two great grandchildren, Piper and Scott.

Nancy was preceded in death by her parents, Richard and Jerolyn Grimes; and one sister, Diane Daniels.

Memories from family:

Jo-Ruth Pruetz | First cousins but were more like sisters. The two – only months apart in age grew up together and were very close.

Heather Livingston | Her granddaughter Heather will remember her most for all the times they cooked together. Her favorite recipe that her Nana taught her how to make – her chocolate pie.

Kimberly Livingston | For her oldest granddaughter, Kimberly, just about every significant part of her life had her Nana in it. Kimberly is thankful to have 32 years with her grandmother, including her six years living in Oxford when she attended Ole Miss.
