

Otto Puttman

June 23, 1931 - October 1, 2018

Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford

Mr. Otto Puttman, 87, passed away, Monday, October 1, 2018, at his home in Oxford, MS. A Celebration of Life will be held Wednesday, October 3, 2018, from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. at Coleman Funeral Home in Oxford. Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Puttman was born in Vienna, Austria. He traveled to the U.S. in 1950, where he met his wife of 40 years, Ann Marie Puttman. Mr. Puttman dedicated 60 years of his life to becoming a master cabinet maker. He also became a well established bread maker when he and his wife moved to Oxford 12 years ago. Mr. Puttman was always fascinated by books, and he was excited at the thought of learning something new. Mr. Puttman loved his family and even in his last days, he was just as positive and loving as ever. Being a survivor of the Holocaust, his legacy was that having been a victim once, he will never be a victim again. That, in itself, speaks volumes to who Mr. Puttman was.

Mr. Puttman is survived by his wife, Ann Marie Puttman of Oxford; one son, Andrew (Jannet Pena) Puttman of Boynton Beach, FL; three grandsons, Matthew Puttman of Philadelphia, PA, and Camilo Garcia and Christian Garcia, both of Boynton Beach; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Mr. Puttman was preceded in death by his parents, Lutz Puttman and Margaret Puttman; one daughter, Valerie "Cookie" Puttman; and one son, Glenn Puttman.

Donations and memorials in honor of Mr. Otto Puttman may be made to Le Bonheur Children's Research Hospital (www.lebonheur.org).

“ Otto was my Uncle (my Mother's brother). I was always very close with my cousin Cookie (his daughter) growing up - and loved when our two families did almost everything together (dinners, holidays, vacations, etc). I always looked up to my (cool) uncle Otto as a little girl - and then came to know him as an adult for the smart, funny & loving man that he was! We were all so very happy for him when he started his wonderful life journey together with Annie. I am very saddened by his loss. He will be missed very much - and will always be in our hearts! We love you Annie!! Lydia Snyder

“ Most of us work and try and struggle to believe that we are living good lives. Otto just did. He was not a man of superfluous words —but the words he spoke meant something. If you had the chance to know Otto, you knew a giant of a man. He was loved and oh how he will be so greatly missed. Our hearts celebrate a life well-lived even though they are breaking at the loss.

They walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear.*

I never had the good fortune to meet Otto...He sounds like was an incredible human being! I however know his son Andy. Otto must have been a wonderful father to have raised Andy, who I regard as family. One day at a time...your loved one is never far. ♡♡♡♡

“ I had the opportunity to spend the better part of the last few years in Oxford with Otto in my shop working five days a week. While we may not have always agreed on the best way to accomplish a task, there is no question that every skill I possess in the shop today can be attributed to Otto. Its unlikely I'll ever meet another person in my lifetime with the passion and knowledge about cabinetry that Otto possessed. I certainly won't achieve that myself. He was easily one of the most unique people I've ever met. Thanks for all you taught me Otto.
