

Pam Tagg Fontana

May 8, 1944 - November 10, 2015

Pam Tagg Fontana, 71, died Wednesday, November 10, 2015, at Baptist DeSoto in Southaven, MS. The graveside service will be Saturday, November 14, 2015 at 11:30 A.M. at Autumn Woods Cemetery in Olive Branch, MS. A visitation will be held Saturday, November 14, 2015 at Coleman Funeral Home in Olive Branch from 10:00 A.M. to 11:00 A.M.

Born in Ohio to the late Robert Pearl and Jean Elizabeth Tagg, Ms. Pam was a compassionate and caring woman and would give anything to help someone. Pam was the backbone of her family and spent as much time as possible with her grandchildren. She was an excellent mother but an amazing grandmother. Pam loved to garden and was known for her roses. If you came to her house it was like going to botanical gardens with all the pretty flowers growing. Pam will be remembered for her sense of humor, kind heart, and persnickety attitude. She would even fuss about this obituary. Her love for her two dogs Penny and Sadie was unconditional, and we are certain that they met her at the gates of heaven with tails wagging.

Ms. Pam is survived by a son, Anthony Fontana of Southaven, MS; a daughter, Nicole Mavromatis of Maryland; a sister, Sondra Deluga and her husband, Thomas of Pittsburg; four grandchildren, Michael and Max Mavromatis, Dominick Packham, Sophia Fontana and one great grandchild, Carter Coffin.

“ Ms. Pam will be dearly missed by our family. She has been our neighbor for 11 years now, although she was so much more than that to us. She always took the time to think about others. When we first moved in she brought us homemade cookies. One Christmas, she hand made dough for her and Audrey to make holiday cookies. When I came home from the hospital after having Jack Henry, she gave me my time and then brought over a delicious meal. She hand picked lots of onesies, mittens, and blankets for him. No chance he would ever get cold! A couple of years ago, she joined us for Thanksgiving. She was stylishly dressed and full of joy. The girls enjoyed jumping on the trampoline and saying, "Hey, Ms. Pam" while she was in her backyard. I can hear her laughing now and saying hey. She was always talking about her grandchildren. She was always so independent and on the go with Penny. I know she is at peace now. I am so blessed to have been able to tell her how thankful I was for her, how she has touched my life personally, and give her a final hug and kiss on the head. She visited me in my dreams the day after and looked like her healthy self. She embraced me with the biggest hug. I can't help but believe she has found peace with her savior. We love you Ms. Pam!

“ Pam and I have been friends since Anthony was about 18 mos. old (quite a few years- hey Anthy) when her family moved to Morristown Tn. to work at NCR with my husband. We immediately became life long friends. A deep and wonderful friendship. We saw each other everyday. Our children played together, fought together, and ate together. We made some great memories together--some were hilarious (we could tell stories forever) and some were bittersweet. As time goes by she moved away but through all the years we have always remained close--talking together for hours late at night, sharing our lives the joys and the sorrows
I will miss you Pam--You are a best friend. I am thankful for your life and your faith in Jesus Christ and I look forward to seeing you again.

Forever your friend,
Sue

“ I worked with Pam for 10 or 12 years in the Global Freight movement center. Once we got to know each other we had a good time. I could make her laugh so hard some days our boss would say she was going to separate us. It was always a joy to work with her. My thoughts and prayers will be with her family!
