“Peggy Sue was so caring and loved with all her heart. I have known her since I was 14 years old. I have many memories and can see her smiling and us listening to Conway Twitty and Loretta Lynn. And we loved going to Blue Lake. And hanging out with all of our friends in the neighborhood. I have memories of us and Lisa Green and Katie Clanton. And so many more friends. I am so proud of Peggy for turning her life around and living for her family and God. I love you Sue, forever and always. Not time or space or death can break the bond we have. I could not talk to her for months and when we did , it was like we never missed a beat. That is really special to have someone like that. Thank you GOD for allowing her to be a part of my life. I will miss her voice and her spunk. Fly with the angels. I will see you when I get there.
