“ I walk through my new life knowing you are by my side. You are always here on my mind. You taught me so much about honoring myself. Echoes of words said enter reality. All your signs point north. Keep shining on me, and I will meet you in the glow.

“ They say time heals wounds, but some wounds leave such a mark they can never truly heal or be forgotten. You still pop up in my head from time to time. I wish you were here. You'd be so proud of your sisters, your children, and myself too. We miss you and love you so much. Hopefully one day we'll see each other again. Rest well, brother.

“For in grief nothing "stays put." One keeps on emerging from a phase, but it always recurs. Round and round. Everything repeats. Am I going in circles, or dare I hope I am on a spiral?

But if a spiral, am I going up or down it?

How often -- will it be for always? -- how often will the vast emptiness astonish me like a complete novelty and make me say, "I never realized my loss till this moment"? The same leg is cut off time after time.... The death of a beloved is an amputation."

“ My brother was one of the most courageous and strong-willed people I have ever known. I have so many memories of him being adventurous and fun loving. I always admired how he pushed himself against adversity and strife, always looking to the future. He cared so much about giving back to the world and caring for those during their own difficult times. Because of him, I am myself inspired to go further and do more. Many may know Quinn had a wonderful green thumb so in keeping with his love of all things beautiful in nature, let's remember that "life's a garden, dig it!"

“ I wanted to add that we all love you so much. I'm very thankful that the last thing you told me was "I love you". You were such a great person. You will be forever missed. You may be gone, but you will never be forgotten. No matter how life goes, I'll always be here for your family. I love you so much, Quinn.

“ Quinn was a very unique individual. He gave me the confidence to be whoever I wanted to be. He supported me in everything. He was always there for me with good advice or a hug or whatever I needed. Quinn, you went too early. You were going to change the world for the better. This world needs more people like Quinn Zimmer.
