Mr. Hembree was born January 5, 1959, in Philadelphia, MS. He was reared to be a true Southern man, who loved God, family, NASCAR, wrestling, country music, Hershey bars, and Mountain Dew. He had the most wonderful personality, which was that of a God-fearing, conscientious, hard-working and loving family man, combined with a mischievous witty side, which appeared when teasing those whom he was particularly fond.

Mr. Hembree was preceded in death by his parents, Cecil and Audrey Shepard Hembree.

Mr. Randy Hembree is survived by his loving wife, Connie Jean Hembree of Hernando, MS; his five children, Constance Hembree (Joshua) Kennedy of Hernando, Christopher "Chris" Hembree of Lawley, AL, Justin Hembree of Brierfield, AL, Thomas Hembree of Lawley, and Ashley Hembree of Maplesville, AL; his three stepchildren, Christy Ingram of Memphis, TN, Courtney Cook of Inverness, FL, and Jeremy Cook of Inverness; twenty grandchildren; six great-grandchildren with one on the way; and his two sisters, Tommie Hardy of Philadelphia, MS, and Nancy (Dwight) of Brandon, MS.

“ I worked with Randy for over four years. I am DEVASTATED to hear of his passing! He was always SO GOOD to me! I decorated his desk with pink and other princess stuff one year for his b-day. It included a princess tiara and a magic princess wand. He was such a good sport that he donned both of them and allowed Josh Prewett to take a pic and send it to "B&PEveryone." I love you, Randy, and I always will! To hear and know that you're gone makes my heart ache. You were my friend and confidant. We talked about EVERYTHING, and we never shared our conversations with anyone! I miss you and I love you!

“ I worked with Randy Hembree in the shop. Every afternoon when we were waiting to clock out he would start telling his stories and everyday he would say "Let's go to the house". That expression meant it was time to clock out. May God be with you. May Randy live in your heart forever.

“ My brother-in-law had the most kind heart, gentle soul and the best humor. Randy was a good man. He was a hard working man who loved his family deeply. He loved his job and enjoyed going to work every day. He was always happy to speak with any person he met and always had a story to tell. His laugh would fill the room; which would in turn fill your heart. He could make anyone laugh on their worst day. Randy was a very special and kind soul. A gentle giant, so to speak. I have been fortunate enough to know this man and call him my brother-in-law. I guess you could say we bonded over a shoe event (Connie you know). Boy, did we laugh about that one through the years. I'm sure going to miss him, but I will never forget him. Randy is and will always remain in our hearts. Family never goes far. We all remain bonded forever.
