“ Reno, Words can't describe the heaviness of my heart since I heard of your passing. My day is filled with memories of us working together. From the desk I sit at to the cabinets I lock daily even the MOP I ride everyday because they all belonged to you before you were promoted. And now I'm left with the impossible task of trying to fill your shoes in the Kit department. You were such an amazing friend. I think I will buy a bag of "sunflower seeds" to simply keep at my desk in your memory because you kept a bag on your desk everyday. I often thanked you for how you tirelessly trained me and for the knowledge you shared. We could hardly do our daily task because of all the people that would constantly come to you for assistance. But you being you NEVER turned anyone away. You never saw color in our friendship. I guess that's why we always referred to each other as "brother" when we texted or e-mailed throughout the day. You will always be that "brother" to me. I wish we could have had one more conversation!! Maybe just maybe things would be different. I'm a better person, worker, husband and father because of meeting and befriending you Reno. I'm going to miss you HOMIE... Your family is in my prayers!!!! God Bless and Keep the Camerucci Family.

“ I remember when I first transferred to Byhalia from Chicago, Reno was one of the guys who I immediately formed a friendship with. He had THAT kind of personality - very welcoming and laid back. I enjoyed our many conversations, most of which were about our families, and a lot of joking around and laughing. He was one of my favorite people. My only regret is that I didn't get to spend time with him outside of work. I had a lot of respect for him as a person and as a colleague, and I'm a better person for having known him. At work, he took pride in everything he did and did his best to make those around him better. The impact he has had on his friends and family is immeasurable. The love and empathy demonstrated at work alone toward him and his family is evidence of that. He will be missed.

My heart is broken completely in two to hear of your passing. Cory and I were just talking about you the other day at how fun, outgoing, and caring you were. “ Dear Camerucci family, Words can't express the sorrow that so many of us feel for your family during this difficult time of loss. Reno was a good friend and a close colleague to so many of us both here in the United States and around the world.

I had a great deal of respect for Reno both personally and professionally. As a co-worker, he was talented, hardworking, and always there to help others. He was a leader who led by example and who put the needs of others ahead of his own. Personally, I know he loved his family deeply. He spoke of you all often and was quick to show pictures of his family and was very proud of his two wonderful boys.

Your family will be in my family's prayers for the days, weeks, and months to come. Reno was a good man and he will be greatly missed by myself and countless others.

*Sincerely,

“ Reno, it is with a heavy heart that I have to say good-bye to a great friend that I have known for almost 2 years. I am still trying to swallow the news that I received yesterday morning that you gained your wings. Your smile and laughter was infectious. You were like a little brother to me. I never thought when we last spoke a few days ago at work that it would be my last time speaking with you. Fly high my friend until we meet again. You will be greatly missed.

To the family, "Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal." I will continue to keep all of you in my prayers during this difficult time. .

“Most people come from loving families that we spend most of our time with sharing memories, struggles and good times. Some of us get lucky enough to share those same moments with great co-workers who turn into family, and for that, I am blessed.

Today the Company Flags fly 'half staff' in Honor but also in Memory of you, Reno.

It seems at times we are so caught up in our own worlds that we tend to forget someone might be struggling in theirs. If I had the power to go back in time, this is what I would leave you with:

“Please know, your frustrations, weaknesses, strengths, moments of joy and also moments of pain are worthy of a Conversation.”

Reno you are loved by many here in Byhalia and also abroad. Rest in peace, Reno, for you are truly in a better place.

“ You will lose someone you can't live without, and your heart will be badly broken, and the bad news is that you never completely get over the loss of your beloved. But there is also a little good news. They live forever in your broken heart that doesn't seal back up. And when you make it through the pain. It's like having a broken leg that never heals perfectly—that still hurts when the weather gets cold, but you learn to dance with the limp

*you will be missed Reno

“ My friend my friend I remember the first day you said something to me. You said I need to find this part can you help me. We went out looking for the part and sure enough we found it. If I had a question or needed some help with anything you was there even when you moved to your new job you would still answer my question. I am sitting here looking at your picture and can't help but wonder. Man I am truly going to miss you. I pray for your family. God wrap your arms around The Camerucci Family.

God saw you getting tired So he put his arms around you
I had no idea that this would be my last time speaking, IM or emailing you. Rest my friend. God be with your Family.

“ Reno, it is with a heavy heart that I say good-bye. It's hard to swallow the news I got yesterday that you gained your wings and crossed over. I just passed you in the hallway a few days earlier and spoke. I find myself asking "what if" what if I had seen you in the office on Tuesday could the outcome be different. That's a question I'll never have the answer to. It was a pleasure working with you over the past 3 years here in Byhalia, MS. You will be greatly missed!
