“ Steve had fond memories of both his parents. He was with both in their last days and this comforted him greatly. He was also grateful for his daughters. He told tales of his many colorful adventures with sparkle and gratitude. Steve truly appreciated his life.

“ My name is Stephanie May. My nickname that Grand Dad gave me is Naggie. simply because I nagged at him all the time about taking his meds and his diet. I loved and cared for Grand Dad. He always made me laugh. I will truly miss his outgoing personality. I pray for his family during this time of grieving. May God comfort you. Bye friend. Rest in peace.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I will miss him a lot. I always knew I could count on Steve to make me laugh no matter what kind of mood I was having. His humor and wittiness with the ability to always make a joke out of everything and anything made him one of a kind that no one can duplicate. He was never the grown up in a situation, he was always the kid. He really did not have the ability to take anything serious and expected no one else to be serious. will miss him so much. sherry lott
