Richard was born August 5, 1983 in East Los Angeles, California. He began his school years enrolled at San Fernando High School and finished at Sheffield High School in Memphis, Tennessee. Richard is remembered by his family for being a loving son, caring brother, and passionate father. He was very family oriented and loved the days they all spent together. He was full of enthusiasm and had a playful mannerism that would light up any room he walked into. Due to his unique way of making others laugh, Richard developed the nickname “Payaso”, “Clown” in English, which described him greatly. He was an avid sports fan that never missed out on any baseball or football games. Although Richard is no longer with us, his unique personality will be cherished in the days his family will endure his absence.

Richard is survived by his children, Emily Celeste Villa, Melissa Villa, Richard M. Villa, Jr., and Azriel Villa; his parents, Alma Blanca Torres and Miguel Angel Torres; his two sisters, Ana Bell Villa and Jacqueline “Jacky” Villa

Lopez; one brother, Alberto S. Torres; and a host of nieces, nephews, and extended family.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Berta Lopez; his aunt, Mieya Lopez; and his two uncles, Alberto S. Lopez and Ramiro N. Lopez.
