Richard Lewis McCoy, 69, of Oxford passed away at The Pinnacle of Oxford on Sunday, February 25, 2024.

The family will receive friends at Coleman Funeral Home of Oxford on Tuesday, February 27, 2024, from 12:00 PM until 2:00 PM. The funeral service celebrating his life will occur on Tuesday, February 27, 2024, at 2:00 PM in the chapel of Coleman Funeral Home.

Richard was welcomed into this world on June 29, 1954 in Cocoa beach, Florida as one of the four children born to the late Garland McCoy and Lanell Hodge McCoy.

Richard married his late wife, Jeannie Shipp McCoy, in 1974 and the couple spent nearly forty-eight years together before her passing in March of 2023. Their expansive marriage not only gave life to numerous memories but also, a loving daughter, and two grandchildren.

This man that cherished his family, provided for them in many different ways through the years, from farming and working in the construction business to becoming a medical courier and later finding a long term career at the University of Mississippi Physical Plant.

Many years ago, when he was a young man, Richard belonged to a rock band with some of his dearest friends, the group was called Arion and they played popular hits of the decade. His love for classic rock never faded and he could still be found singing along to the radio, with the volume as loud as it would go. Aside from his love for classic rock, he saw value in the great outdoors and was known to bait a hook and cast a line on a crappie fishing adventure or patiently waiting in the serenity of the woods while deer hunting. He also found joy in gazing upon the intricate beauty of hummingbirds as they quickly flew by. His favorite place to dine was La Perla, where he was known as a daily patron, sometimes dining with them twice per day.

In addition to his hobbies and interests, topping the list was his profound passion for anything and everything Ole Miss, especially Football and Baseball. He could often be found at every single home game, well before the game even started so he could claim the best seat.

Although Richard has departed from our presence, his treasured memory will hold a special place in the hearts and minds of his loved ones.

Richard is survived by his daughter, Jennifer Bogue (Scottie) of Etta, Mississippi; two grandchildren, Kayden Bogue and Connor Bogue, both of Etta, Mississippi; a sister, Lisa Smith (Kenneth) of Pope, Mississippi; and two brothers, Jerry Lee McCoy (Irene), and James Keith McCoy (Pat) both of Batesville, Mississippi.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Garland McCoy and Lanell Hodge McCoy; and one granddaughter, Leah Grace Bogue.
