“ Richard WAS THE coolest dude I had met in sometime. I met him in 2015 through work and he was a breath of fresh air. I will always remember his humor and comedic angle on SO many facets of our 'observations' of the human condition, that is for sure. Though if you knew him you would not expect less as his nature was always pure. A friend of mine years ago told me cherish those special times and I have taken to heart. I am happy I saw Richard at MANY happy times in his life, especially his new marriage with Jamie. He and I shared a passion for animals and talked many times about each of our desires to open an official rescue. I have always said, I assess someone by how they treat an animal, well Richard is 5 STARS for me. I am better for knowing him and I hope I at least added some value to his life . May he RIP
