“ This text relates to grandkids and the daughter in law.
When health and time permitted, we enjoyed the memories made with grandmaw Rita. With love, Justin and Michael Sherman.
Rita was my mother in law for many years. We had a close bond. Our conversations were God, family, the dogs and those Sherman men. Rita loved me and excepted, even after I left the family. I still referred her as my mom in law. Our memories are held dear in my heart; although dearly missed I'll see you again in the heavenly presence of the Lord. You now have a unlimited supply of ice to eat Rita.... love you, Tammy
