“Sweet, sweet memories of all the summers we spent with Jimmy, Mary Ellen, Debbie, Robby, and Janet at Sardis Lake staying in a cabin at John W. Kyle State Park and water skiing from early morning when the water was smooth as glass until late afternoon. Robby was always the life of the party. I remember even wishing we could adopt him so I could have a big brother. Really miss those days.”

Joy, Debbie, and all of Robby's family, just want you to know that you are all in my prayers.
