Robert Marlin "Tooley" Coleman, 87, passed away Thursday, January 11, 2018, at his residence in Nesbit, MS. Visitation will be Monday, January 15, 2018, from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Goodman Oaks Church of Christ (1700 Goodman Rd. E., Southaven, MS 38671) followed by the funeral service at 1:00 p.m. Interment to follow at Memphis Memory Gardens. Ken Joines will officiate the service. Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of the arrangements.

Mr. Coleman was born in Lafayette County, MS, in the early Fall of 1930 to Sidney and Mary Coleman. Growing up with a large family, he embraced the togetherness and time spent with his parents and siblings, a gift he passed down to his own children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. He loved fishing, watching Ole Miss ballgames, and attending all sporting events and extracurricular activities of his grandchildren. He and his beloved wife, Nora, took the family on trips to Gulf Shores, AL, and Pickwick Lake every summer where you would find him on the beach, in the pool, or in the lake skiing making lifelong memories with them.

Mr. Coleman was a godly man with a servant's heart and a devout love for God and His Word. He grew up in the Church of Christ and instilled those values in his family until the day he left us. He was a member of Goodman Oaks Church of Christ and loved his church deeply. His love of God, family, and people was evidenced daily as he faithfully served everyone around him.

Mr. Coleman was married to the love of his life, Nora, for 56 years and was her fulltime caregiver during the last years of her life until her passing in 2012. The years they spent together and the love they shared was one of a kind and an inspiration to so many.

Mr. Coleman was a maintenance machinist for Kellogg's Cereal Co. for 32 years. He was a hardworking man, loved his job, and provided above and beyond for his wife and two daughters.

He leaves behind his daughters, Robbie (Harry) Phillips and Rhonda (Keith) Whiting both of Southaven, MS; grandchildren, Gracie (Tyler) Stevenson of Germantown, TN, Rebecca (Blake) Hajek of Memphis, TN, Lauren Whiting of Southaven, and Matthew Whiting of Southaven; great grandchildren, Olivia and Nora Stevenson, both of Germantown; brother, Horace Coleman of Hernando, MS; sister, Hilda Carlock of Nesbit.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Nora Lynn Nelson Coleman; his infant daughter, Lisa Fay Coleman; his parents, Sidney and Mary Coleman; two sisters, Robbie Shipp and Nida Douglas; three brothers, John Roland Coleman, Sr., James Sidney Coleman, and Billy Jack Coleman.

In honor of Mr. Coleman's service to our country, the flag of the United States Army will be flown at Coleman Funeral Home.
