While looking for my Aunt's (dad's sister) obituary, I notice Mr. Robert Harrell's. I'm so sorry for the families loss. My mother was a Harrell. Her dad's name was Floyd Harrell from Wynne, AR. I don't remember Pappa's 1/2 brothers' names, but I believe there were two of them and one went north or northwest Arkansas and the other I believe farther south. Mr. Robert seem like a good man. I'm praying that the family is doing well.

“ Rob will certainly be missed, Even after he and my sister divorced and after she passed he continued to be a part of our family. He always spent Christmas with my family and he did a lot for our mother as long as he could. He would often bring her flowers for no reason other than he cared about her. He was always there when Mom needed something fixed and he didn't quit until it was fixed right!

We will all miss Rob

“ Rob had been married to my sister Donna. Even after their divorce he remained close to the family and considered our mom his mom. He was often fixing something around the house for my mom and brought her flowers sometimes. He will be missed.
