Robert Lee Huckaby was born August 20, 1948, in Oxford, MS. He grew up a die-hard Rebel Fan, so much so that he named his beloved dog Rebel. However, Ole Miss came only second to his family who he adored. His grandchildren were his pride and joy, and he was a dedicated father and husband. He was an amazing family man and always put them first. Robert was a very lively, happy and energetic person; and loved putting a smile on others' faces.

Robert Lee Huckaby is survived by his wife, Monnie A. Huckaby of Southaven; his step-daughter, Adrienne Ray of Southaven; his step-sons, George Kirkland of Southaven and Patrick (Kelly) Kirkland of Tyro, MS; his mother, Katherine Huckaby of Oxford; his granddaughters, Angel Kirkland, Hailey Ray, and Faith Kirkland; his grandsons, Cody Kirkland and Ethan Ray; and his brother, Ronald Huckaby of Oxford.

Mr. Huckaby was preceded in death by his father, Dean Huckaby; and his first wife, Kathy Huckaby.

“ Robert “Huck” Huckaby was a friend of mine on Facebook for many years. He loved Ole Miss, and we shared the good times and the bad, but we never lost the faith in the Rebels. “Huck” always had a positive attitude in victory or defeat. There’s no doubt, he was a good man. I’m sure he’ll be missed by many. My prayers are for Monnie and the family for comfort during these difficult times. R.I.P., my friend.

“ I knew Robert when we were neighbors on Amherst Rd in Whitehaven. That was approximately 1955/56. He loved picking on me when our group got together after school. We played with about 5 other kids our age. My family moved to East Memphis about 1960, and I lost touch with him. About 4 years ago, we met on Facebook. We met for lunch a few weeks after, and he had not changed a bit. I will always remember our conversations about our old play buddies. I will miss him, but so glad we had our talks. God bless his family and praying for them.
