“ I lived with Aunt Nina and Uncle Ronnie my first summer at Memphis State University. We laughed so often. He grew cucumbers in his garden and ALWAYS made sure I was allowed to choose how many I wanted! Aunt Nina would make us a special dessert... Uncle Ronnie and I would bang our knives and forks on the kitchen table and shout, "PEACHES, PEACHES! POUND CAKE! POUND CAKE!" I had such a wonderful time with those two. It was a very special part of my life, and Uncle Ronnie made it fun without even trying.
